

Manage The Manager is an all time favourite. Manage The Manager is a program that has been designed and developed to enhance the skills of Managers and Supervisors alike.

Manage The Manager teaches a new set of skills that have been designed to create greater empathy and understanding between subordinates and will cause your managers and supervisors to become more deeply connected with those people, thus rewarding them with greater psychological and emotional control, increased levels of respect and greater personal power and influence.

Manage The Manager is a program that can be undertaken as many times as desired. Great refresher course.
